BARANOF ELDER RENTAL APPLICATION

ELIGIBILITY GUIDELINES

The KICHA rental program provides affordable housing to qualified American Indian/Alaska Native Elders (60+) and their spouse. Family members under the age of 60 who are not a spouse of the applicant are ineligible for residency.

Eligibility that may be used on household gross income using the following criteria:

- The most recent calendar month's income verification prior to award
- Previous year's tax return (if applicable)
- The self-employment worksheet for self-employed household members for the prior 12 months, include previous year tax return with Schedule C
- Annual statement of benefits from State and Federal Agencies such as Social Security and the State of Alaska Senior Benefits
- Annual statement of annuity payments

All households must provide verification of their income for the eligibility period.

The standard used to determine maximum allowable income for eligibility is 80% of the median income guidelines issued annually by Housing and Urban Development (HUD) for the Ketchikan Gateway Borough area.

Maximum eligible income FY18 is:

Persons in Household	Annual Income	Monthly Income
1	$48,944	$4,079
2	$55,936	$ 4,661

Available Assistance 1 and 2 bedroom apartments

Minimum Income Families must have sufficient income to make monthly housing payments, utility payments and perform maintenance of the home. To be eligible the family's income must equal or exceed the minimum income requirements necessary for the tenant to make a minimum rental payment of $150.00.

Preferences for KIC Tribal Members, clean rental history, ability to pay rent, veteran, and disabled/handicap as defined by KICHA
