VETERANS HOUSING PROGRAM

ELIGIBILITY GUIDELINES

The KICHA Veterans Housing Program provides affordable housing to qualified American Indian/Alaska Native Veterans.

Eligibility is based on household gross income (before taxes) using the following criteria:

- The most recent calendar month's income verification prior to award
- Previous year's tax return
- The self-employment worksheet for self-employed household members for the prior 12 months.

All households must provide verification of their income for the eligibility period.

The standard used to determine maximum allowable income for eligibility is 80% of the median income guidelines issued annually by Housing and Urban Development (HUD) for the Ketchikan Gateway Borough area.

Maximum eligible income FY18 is:

Persons in Household	Annual Income	Monthly Income
1	$48,944	$4,079
2	$55,936	$ 4,661

Preferences for KIC Tribal Members, clean rental history, ability to pay rent, veteran, and disabled/handicap as defined by KICHA

Veterans Housing Program Policies

Special Requirements for Veterans Housing

The purpose of the Ketchikan Indian Community Housing Authority Veterans Housing Program is to provide affordable housing for qualified American Indian/Alaska Native Veterans and spouse.

Selection

In addition to being eligible, applicants for KICHA Veterans Housing Program properties must be determined to be suitable, which is defined as;

The ability to pay rent in accordance with the KICHA policy

The ability to maintain a rental unit and its premises in accordance with the KICHA housing programs policies and lease provisions and generally accepted standards of cleanliness and housekeeping;

The ability to live harmoniously with other residents and neighbors and maintain conduct which is not likely to:

- interfere with other residents and neighbors in such a way as to materially diminish their enjoyment of the premises by adversely affecting their health, safety, or welfare, or
- affect adversely the physical environment of the community, or
- adversely affect the health, safety, or welfare of KICHA housing staff or employees of other service providers; and
- The ability to refrain from illegal drug-related activity either on or off Housing /tribal premises; and
- The ability to comply with necessary and reasonable rules and program requirements of the KICHA housing program

In determining eligibility the following factors also shall apply:

- ❖ Any participants evicted for non-payment from any public housing shall not be eligible until arrears are paid in full.

In selecting applicants to fill vacancies, the Ketchikan Indian Community Housing Authority/Tribe will give consideration to the following in the order shown.

- Ketchikan Indian Community enrollees
- Whether applicant is a veteran or serviceman of the U.S. Military.
- Disability or handicap preference for units specially equipped
- Whether admission to the project would prove detrimental to the project or its residents by established records of any of the following:
 - Non-payment of rightful obligations,
 - Imperil to health, safety, or morals of neighbors,
 - Destruction of property,
 - Disregard for rules of occupancy and rights of others.
- Ability to pay rent as evidenced by checking/savings accounts and/or income.
- References
- Homelessness or Overcrowding
- Other applicants in application-date order

Refusal to Provide Verification

The applicants file shall be denied if the applicant refuses to provide verification, fully disclose all information relevant to the eligibility and suitability determination or falsifies information for the purpose of obtaining housing with the KIC housing program

Denial

Veterans determined to be ineligible shall be notified in writing immediately of the reason(s) therefore, and, if requested, the applicant shall be granted a private conference regarding his/her eligibility status.

Waiting List

Each applicant shall be assigned his appropriate place on a community wide basis in a sequence based upon factors affecting preference or priority established by regulation or by the local Ketchikan Indian Community Housing Authority/Tribe's policy.

At the time a unit becomes available, the applicant first on the waiting list shall be offered a suitable unit at the vacancy location.

If an applicant rejects a unit offered, he/she shall be moved to the bottom of the eligibility list. Reassignment or transfer to another dwelling unit may be made to correct occupancy standards.

KICHA may conduct a waiting list update from time to time by mailing a notice to all applicants on the waiting list. Applicants must respond to the letter within 10 business days to express their continued interest or their application will be dropped from the wait list.
